

We are writing in regards to the LPFM station restructuring that would eliminate KLOVE radio. This station is accessed all over the US and has wonderful, positive, and encouraging music, news etc. that this world desperately needs. Please look at the big picture of your decision and not just a small corner of it. Thank you for your time.